

Responsibility - Pre-K to 2nd Teacher Guide

What is Included

The purpose of this guide is to support teachers in empowering students to make positive choices even when faced with challenging situations. In this guide you will find: Connection Questions associated with the video, independent practice guidance, and extended learning opportunities. Each of these resources can be used independently or in conjunction with one another as time allows. For your planning purposes, please find the estimated time needed for each activity below.

Viewing the Video

- Watch the video together with the students.

Student Activities

- Connection Questions (before, during, and after the video) - 5-10 minutes.
- Fun Challenge, Student Activity, Drawing and Coloring Worksheet - 5-15 minutes.
- Extended Learning - 10 minutes.

Connection Questions and Checks for Understanding

Before the video 2-4 minutes

- Ask students:
- "What do you think it means to be responsible?"

During the video 3-5 minutes

- Pause the video periodically to incorporate Checks for Understanding (CFU).
- Ask students: "Why is it important for each person in the community to be responsible?"

After the video

- "What are some of your responsibilities at school? How about at home?"
- "What are some ways you could be more responsible?"
- "What happens if one person does not act responsibly?"

Independent Practice

Fun Challenge Worksheet

- Exciting introduction to the activities ahead.

Drawing/Coloring Worksheet

- Students can express themselves and relax their minds.

Student Activity Worksheet

- For grades 1st and 2nd.

Extended Learning

Read and Discuss

How is Responsibility demonstrated in the following books:

Franklin Wants a Pet
by Paulette Bourgeois

The Little Red Hen
by Paul Galdone

Do I Have to?
Kids Talk About Responsibility
by Nancy Loewen

My Choices Make Me Who I Am
by David and Mutiya Vision